Foreword

Tom Loukota seems engrossed in his work.

Girls in gym class learn how to apply artificial respiration.

THIS, the 1957 yearbook, gathers together the chain of events that have occurred throughout the year. It captures the memories of the senior class and their four years at South Union High School. The underclassmen will recall their past experiences and anticipate their future years at South Union as they leaf through the pages of this book.

This year, as in years past, students will be leaving high school to return no more. As the years roll by, these present days will be a memory all their own and will be treasured as the happiest ones lived.

Our teams have achieved fame this year as in every year, and even though they did not win every game, their opponents respect them for their sportsmanship and outstanding ability.

We would especially like to congratulate the different clubs for their fine work in giving the students a knowledge in different phases of club work. We would also like to congratulate the music department, the cafeteria, the school newspaper, and various other associations for their outstanding co-operation in keeping our school on top. The administration must also be acknowledged as those who guided the students and made it possible for them to reach their goals.

We hope that you will enjoy and share with us the many memories presented in this book, and review with pride your past, present, and future school days. We proudly present to you the 1957 SOUTH UNION EAGLE.

DIRECT THE PATHS WHICH YOUTHS' FEET MUST TROD THROUGH THE YEARS

Like any other organization, the school system must be supervised and directed so that it can offer its students the best possible advantages. The privilege of the graduates of South Union to obtain preparation which enables them to carry on in the best colleges, businesses, or financial endeavors with increasing ease has not "just

SUPPLIES INSPIRATION TO ATTAIN OUR GOALS

South Union with the best educational facilities we can afford. They design the plans upon which our administrators act. Add to this the problems of financial support, maintenance, expansion of the school plant, the improvement of curriculum, and the establishment of policies for the efficiency and growth of the school system; and one can readily realize the many hours that must be spent at the business of administering that complex entity termed the "South Union School District."

"What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth?" is the motto of our supervising principal, Mr. James M. Hazen, as he goes about his duties in carrying out the educational policy established by the school board.

Mrs. Edna Mae Clark and Miss Irma Jean Bell are responsible for the secretarial duties of the school district, which they have performed efficiently.

MRS. MARY E. CATNEY

High School Secretary

Mr. C. W. Frankhouser, High School Principal, and Mr. Joseph A. Loncaric, Assistant Principal, are concerned with the past, present, and future of our school in all its phases. We admire them for their patience. They are slow to condemn, and quick to defend. Working always, tiring never, they encourage and inspire each student to aspire to the highest achievements. Their spirited support in all school affairs is to be acclaimed. Together they give freely and willingly of their time to all scholastic, social and athletic events involving our school, faculty, and students. With this hard working duo as our supporters we are sure to have an outstanding school, and co-operation among the faculty, administration, and students. They have won the respect and affection of all.

To help Mr. Frankhouser and Mr. Loncaric carry out their tasks is Mrs. Mary Catney, high school secretary. Because of her wonderful personality and willingness to help anyone at any-time, Mrs. Catney has become a real friend of the students and faculty.

THE BEGINNING OF A SUCCESS STORY

Highlight of the Square Dance Club dance, "Cupid's Delight," was the crowning of "Queen" Patty Zitney and "King" John Haniford.

Take a closer look, Ginnie, and enjoy the joke with Mary Lou and Eileen.

That the band enjoyed a successful year is indicated by the smiles of the officers: D. Hall, president; R. Deal, treasurer; Ann Jones, secretary; Gerald DeBolt, vice-president.

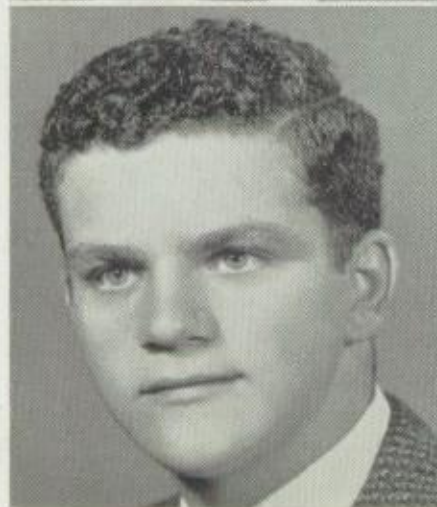

As the doors slowly close on our days at S.U.H.S. we turn to look with misty eyes down the halls of four eventful years. We recall the struggles to complete assignments as well as the good times we have shared. Although our freshman year has become faded in our memories, we still recall those first few weeks and smile at our own bewilderment. It wasn't long before we were able to make ourselves at home among the other students and participate in the activities of the year. Returning to school as sophomores was looked forward to by all, for no longer would we be the "small fries." Remember how good it felt to be able to direct the new freshies to the various rooms? It was during this year that our cheerleaders were chosen and some of our own classmates reached acceptance on our varsity teams. Our junior year as South Union was spent in the joy of finally becoming upper-classmen and in being accepted in many of the organizations and activities as well as receiving our cherished school rings. At last the fourth door opened and we entered upon the last step of the high school ladder. The officers were elected and the year got off to a smooth start. After many days of planning, one of the biggest successes of the year, the senior class dance, was held in the gym and was said to be the most beautifully decorated dance ever held at S. U. The days passed swiftly, taking the school activities and senior events in stride. Baccalaureate services, senior banquet and prom are now history, and as we leave our homes for the commencement service, a sudden tightness catches our throats as we realize that now it is our turn to make something of our lives that we might make this worried world a better place in which to live.

JUNIORS

This year we are proud to present a Junior Class that has taken the junior year seriously. For the past three years they have worked diligently to prepare themselves to assume their responsibilities as seniors. In every field of endeavor the Juniors have proved themselves. Academically, the class has been outstanding; in sports, the Juniors commanded recognition, and in all other school activities they have taken an active part and are proud of their record.

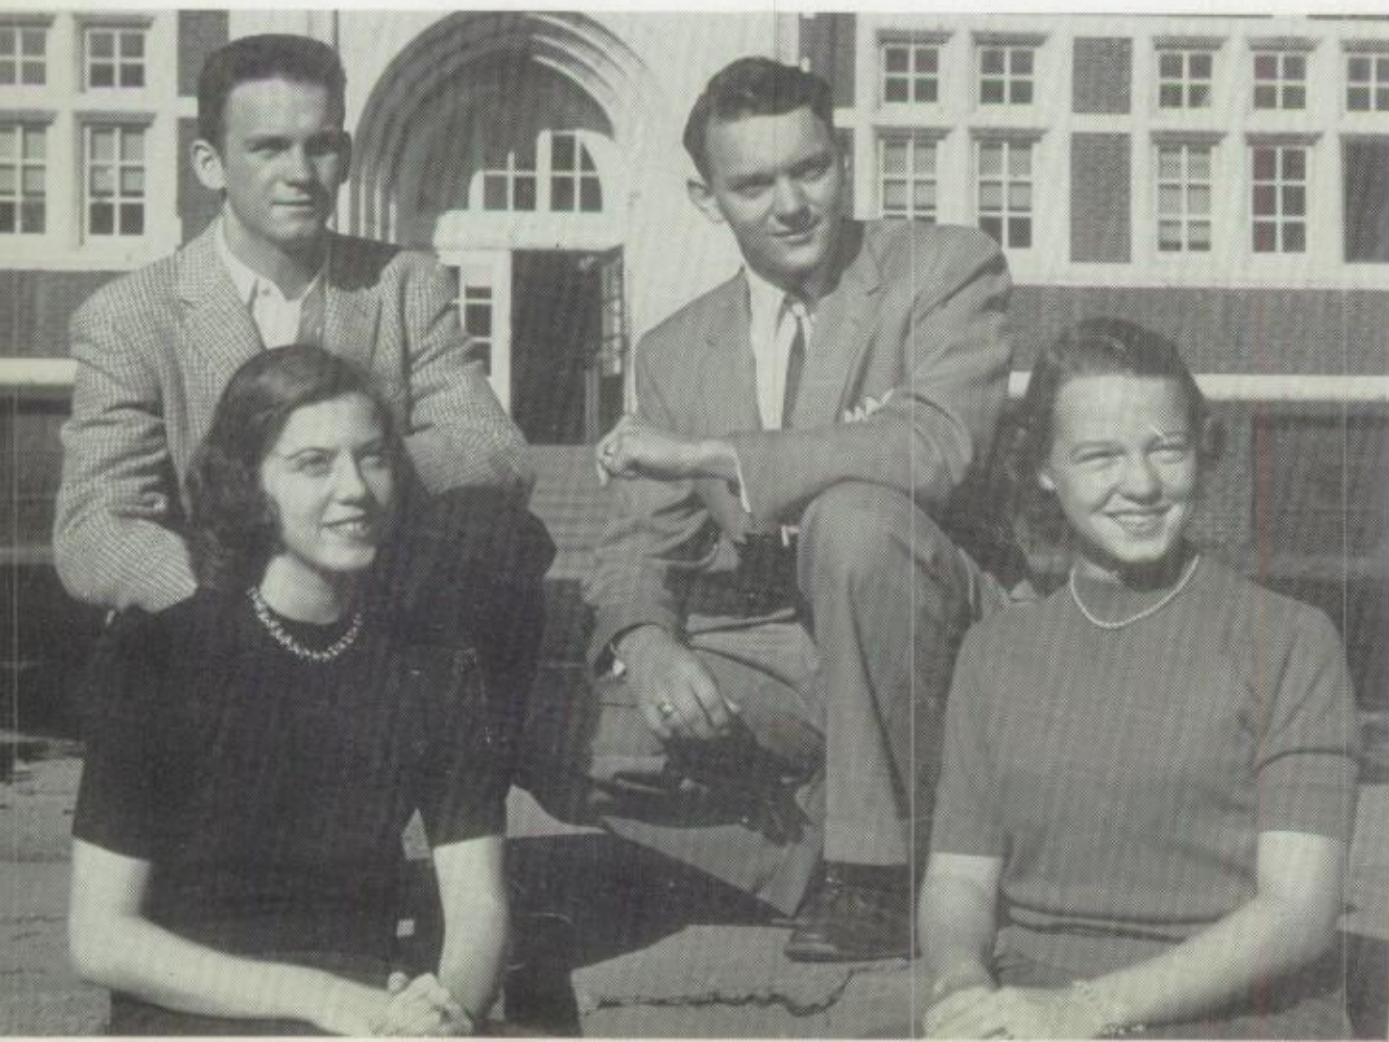

The school year began with the election of officers to provide leadership. The class supported these officers loyally. With excellent cooperation from the group a number of worthwhile activities were provided. First came the "Junior Kickoff," a successful dance commemorating the close of the football season. Exquisite blue and white decorations plus good music made the evening a gala affair. Just as enthusiastically the group combined talent, ability, and cooperation to present a one-act comedy entitled "The Ghostly Passenger" which added to their laurels. To round out a successful year, a well-planned tour of Pittsburgh was provided for the class. This proved to be both educational and cultural.

Now the senior year ahead looks inviting and promising. Soon the junior year will be only pleasant memories.

SOPHOMORES

As they continue along the winding pathway toward success they will always remember the year they spent as sophomores. Although there were many obstacles to surmount, the sophomores overcame most of them.

The sophomores did their share in trying to make the freshmen feel at "home" by sponsoring a Freshman-Sophomore Christmas Party before the holidays. The sophomores also had their own successful dance, "South of the Border," which all enjoyed.

The sophomores were well represented in all school activities. They could be found in the Noon Hour and Square Dance Clubs, they were members of the band and mixed chorus and a few had the honor of being selected as grade recorders. They also made their showing in the minstrel with some fine entertainment.

In the field of sports the sophomores participated and excelled. The baseball, track, basketball, football, and rifle teams were tremendously helped by the sophomores.

Five sophomore girls were selected through a series of tests of different nature as cheerleaders. Also, the Blue Devil was chosen. We sincerely hope and know that these girls will do an excellent job on the cheering squad.

Under the leadership of Mr. Loncaric, their adviser, the sophomores had a highly successful year and feel sure they can "make the grade" as juniors.

John Hess, South Union's disc-jockey, has been faithful in playing records for the Noon Hour Club during the lunch hour.

FRESHMEN

The freshmen entered high school in a shy, quiet manner. Trying to struggle through their first of four years, they anxiously participated in many clubs, sports, and other events, and because of their surpassing eagerness, did surprisingly well. The freshmen were well sponsored by talented members in all events. Although their actions sometimes stamped them as freshmen, they did overcome their shyness and became part of the crowd in due time.

The assembly to elect class officers produced surprising results for it was enthusiastically awaited. The newly elected officers were proud and pleased of the honor bestowed them.

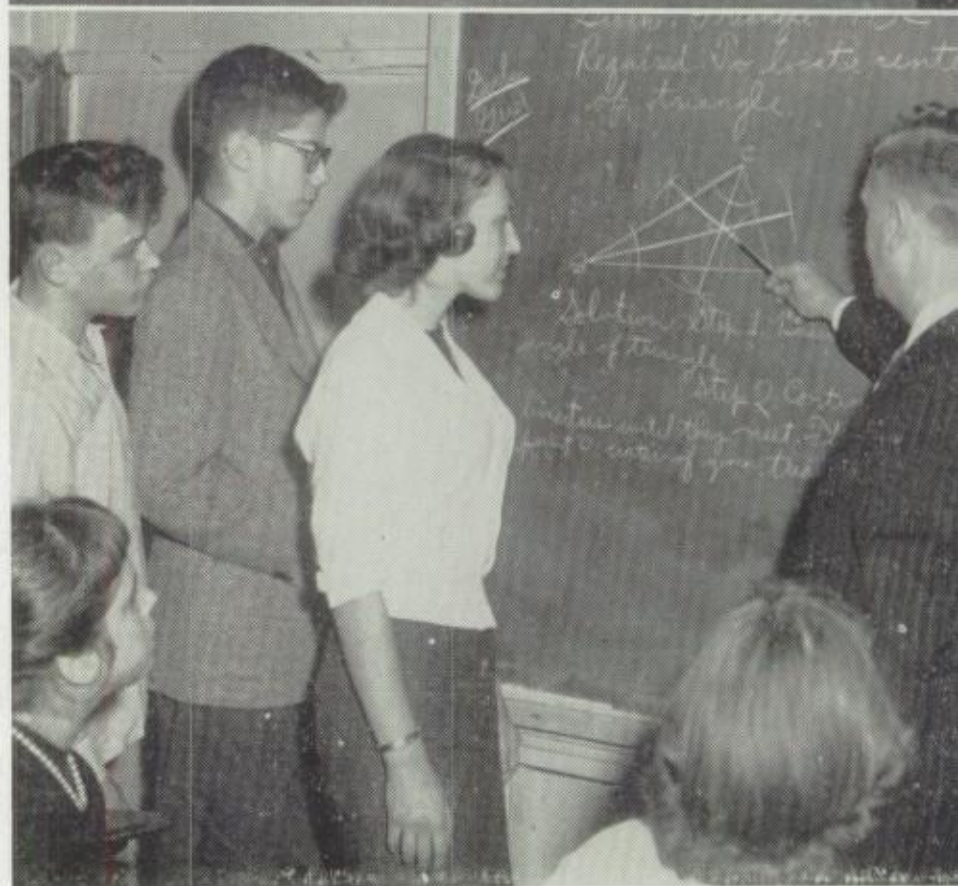

They were able to present a Christmas party in conjunction with the sophomores. Under the excellent sponsorship of Mr. Fudala, the highlight of the freshman year, The Diamond Jubilee, excelled all expectations of pessimistic bystanders.

In concluding the first step on the ladder of success—graduation—their endeavors will be well rewarded by becoming sophomores, leaving behind them their books, rooms, and teachers for the next freshman class, but taking with them vivid memories of bygone happiness.

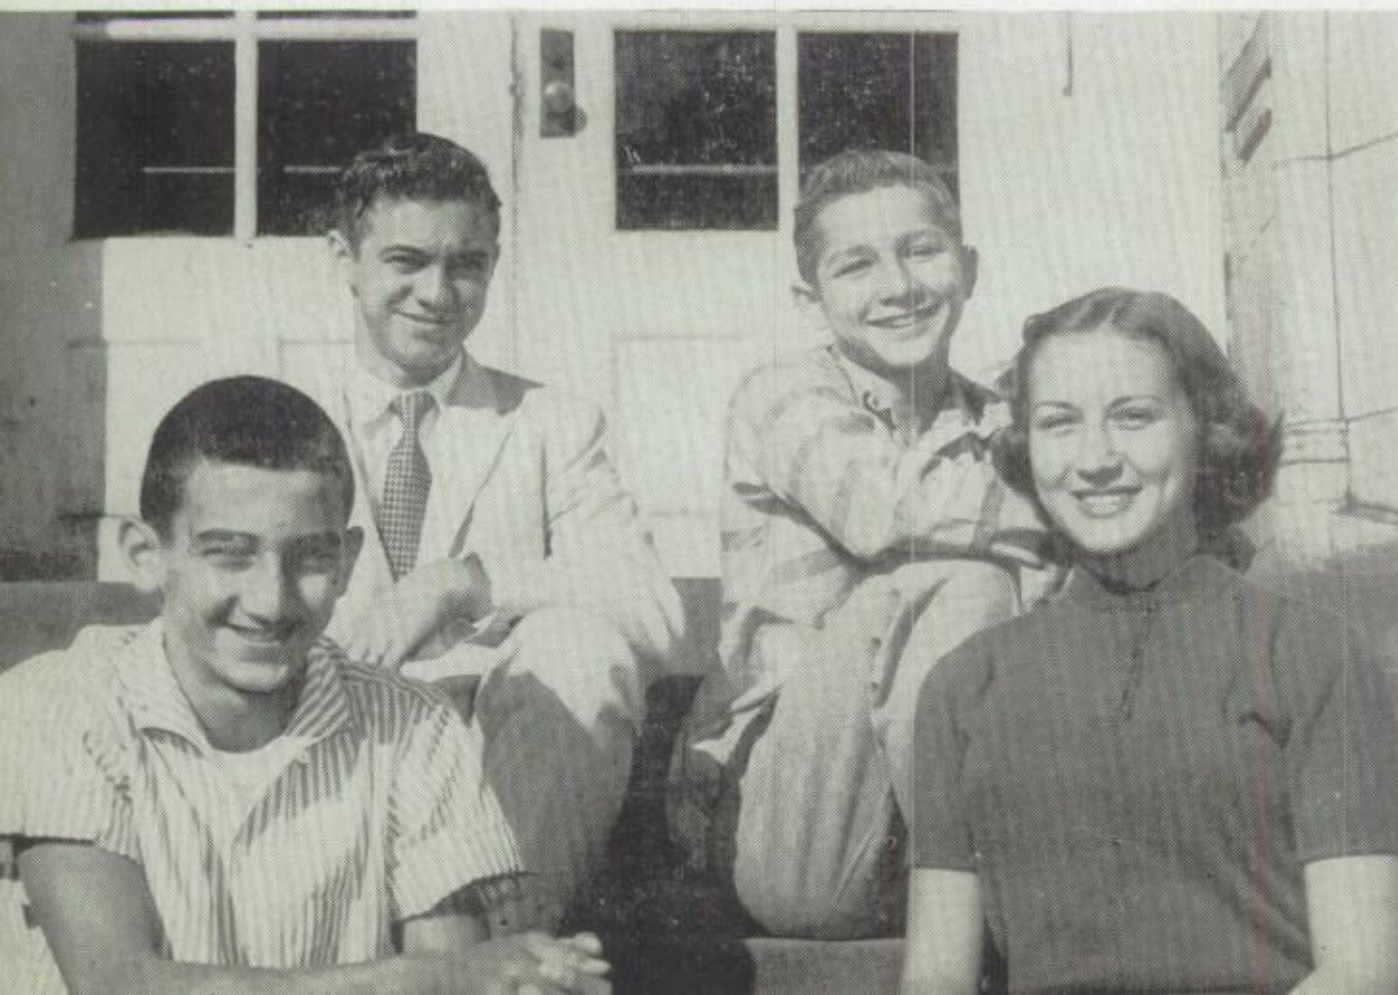

Yes, this year's crop of freshmen did surprise everyone, including themselves, at the way they advanced athletically, socially and scholastically.

AMBITIOUS STAFFS WORK TO CREATE THE '57 EAGLE

"That's it . . . hold still . . . cheese . . . O.K.!" This was heard throughout the year as the photographer snapped picture after picture for use in the yearbook. This is just some of the hustle and bustle that went on "behind the scenes" in the production of the '57 Eagle.

Many hours were spent in sorting, arranging, and scheduling pictures, and creating captions. There were many days that Room 5 hummed like a beehive as editorial staff members scurried about their duties in order to meet all deadlines.

The circulation staff conducted a school-wide subscription drive, and the advertising staff solicited financial assistance which makes the yearbook available at such a reasonable price.

The efforts and hard work of the industrious editorial and business staffs, with the cooperation of their adviser, Mr. Domenick A. Cupelli, have made it possible for you to have this 1957 Eagle.

Blue Devil

ENDEAVORED TO PRESENT THE FINEST IN NEWS

Every six weeks the students of South Union High School are presented with the school newspaper, The Blue Devil News. This paper covers everything that could possibly be crammed into four pages. As a result of the cooperation, hard work, and ability of the staff, the paper was written, edited, printed, and circulated in a smooth, business-like manner.

"Did you write your news story?" "Who will take this autobiography?" "Remember the deadline!" These are familiar sayings heard by the students who comprise the staff of The Blue Devil News.

Each reporter hustles about interviews and getting the facts, compiling them into a story of journalistic style, and rushing them to the editors, who check and re-check. What comes

Student Patrol

SERVE TO IMPROVE OUR SCHOOL

GIRLS' PATROL

Under the able supervision of Mrs. Irene D. Howard, the faculty adviser, the Girls' Patrol has become a very efficient group. As well as keeping the rest room clean, they must discourage cutting classes. Any girl caught loafing between classes in the room automatically receives a "C" in citizenship. The Patrol Girls are rewarded for their capable work with a free ticket to a movie, and, therefore, an afternoon off from school.

Since efficiency is required careful selection is necessary when it comes to a choice of girls. Mrs. Howard selects girls for their trustworthiness and character. At the beginning of the school term, she places them in their respective positions, and thus they serve the students of South Union High.

BOYS' PATROL

Just before the bell rings you probably noticed that a few of your classmates leave the room. On the way to the next class, you have probably seen these students regulating hall traffic. If you have not guessed by now, they are members of the Boys' Patrol.

During the noon hour one of them patrols the cafeteria until all students have purchased their lunch. Then between 12:30 and 12:55, all students must stay out of the halls. To enforce this regulation the patrol boys are always in the halls.

Mr. Costolo, the squad's sponsor, selects the boys on the basis of reliability, trustworthiness, scholarship, and character. Then, at the end of their first year of service, they receive a letter.

RECORD OUR FATE IN BLACK AND WHITE

Susan Ruble, Phyllis Wydo, Marilyn Gleason, and Jane Roscheck record grades for another six-weeks period.

Each six weeks fourteen girls are seen working diligently in Room Four. They are, of course, the Grade Recorders. At South Union High School these girls make out our report cards. Each teacher gives his grade sheets to Mr. Longanecker who in turn distributes them to the girls working on the grade books.

Each year when Mr. Longanecker, the adviser of the staff, chooses new recorders, he talks with sophomore teachers to find the best students for this position. Then the eight selected serve one day each six weeks as grade recorders. Of course, being a grade recorder is not all "hard work" for during the "break period," Mr. Longanecker treats his helpers. For sixteen years Mr. Longanecker has been using this method; therefore, through his careful guidance the staff is highly efficient. The Eagle Staff congratulates them for their excellent work and also wishes them success in the future.

ROW 2—Eddie Drummer, Ferne Fitzpatrick, Marjorie Mackenzie, Cecilia Hixon, Alita Marks, Cornelia Bierer, Susan Ruble, Debbie Rider, John Haniford.

Spurred on by their sponsor, Mrs. Irene D. Howard, and their officers, the Librarians are given unsurpassed opportunities for growth by rendering services to others. They strive to improve the library service of the school by assisting students with reference work and helping them to choose books wisely. Everyday chores for these students include stamping books and reminding students of their overdue books. The ultimate goal set before this service group is to stimulate reading interest. The artistic displays put on the many bulletin boards help to promote this aim. Always cheerful, ever friendly, and constantly on the job are the perfect words to describe the Librarians of South Union High School.

AIM TO PLEASE IS THEIR MOTTO

Marilyn Gleason and Eileen Laub help Wayne McDiffett select one of our school sweat shirts.

The Band

The students and faculty of South Union High School can be very proud of their Blue Devil Band. In football season, the band puts on spectacular performances during the half-time that thrill the young and old alike. Football season isn't the only time, however, that the band performs. The opening of spring lets us know that the band has prepared a spring concert for everyone's enjoyment. Parades, pep meetings, and baccalaureate and commencement exercises constitute a part of their time. Their director, Mr. James F. Crossland, through his tireless efforts, "always puts on a good show."

This year the band has been very fortunate in retaining the Band Mothers Club, organized last year. At that time they had a goal—purchasing new uniforms—which they have successfully attained. All the students of South Union High School, especially the band, are extremely proud of this attire. They serve to brighten the spirit, as well as the appearance, of our wonderful band. Among the many other accomplishments of the Band Mothers Club was presenting the seniors with blue and white jackets, holding a banquet for the entire band, and purchasing plastic covers for the uniforms. A generous contribution was also made toward the purchase of high fidelity record playing equipment. This will make possible the inclusion of music appreciation in the curriculum in future years. We can never really express our full appreciation to the Band Mothers of S.U.H.S.

Music

If ever one visits or just walks through the halls of South Union High School between one and two-thirty o'clock, he or she is filled with inspiration. For contributing to that inspiration is the music, the beautiful strains of two and four part harmony of Chorus I and Chorus II. Mr. James F. Crossland, the Choral Director, rehearses with the Freshman Girls Chorus and the Mixed Chorus of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors every day at this time.

Activities began with the presentation of the Christmas Cantata, a traditional story of Christmas told in a setting of tableau and sacred music. This year's presentation included color film strip pictures of Nativity scenes by the groups who participated. Representatives to the P.M.E.A. Western District Chorus were Mary Ann Marsden and Marilyn Gleason. Accompanist for the girls' chorus was Linda Coffman, and for the mixed chorus, Donette Marinelli. Climaxing the year's activities was the group's presentation of a program of varied music on the Spring Concert.

ANOTHER FIRST! Mr. Crossland presents Deborah Rider with the first John Phillips Susa Award to be given to a S.U.H.S. student. She received this for outstanding interest in instrumental music and high qualities of musicianship.

Drum Major And Majorettes

ADD SPARKLE TO OUR BAND

With the entering of the football season, our snappy majorettes are always seen leading the band across the field or down the street during a parade. There are eight regular girls and one substitute. Several of our majorettes attended majorette camp during the summer months on their own initiative. Six juniors will be with the band again next year as seniors with experience behind them. The majorettes serve as usherettes for the Spring Concert, and add to the fine record of our band.

Bill Neff, S.U.'s drum major for four years, was presented a trophy at the Spring Concert.

Flying Fingers Club

FIND INFORMAL LEARNING ENJOYABLE

DEVELOP USEFUL SKILLS

The Flying Fingers Club is an active organization in the Business Education Department of South Union High School. The object of this organization is to unite congenially in fellowship and friendship those students accepted for membership; and to develop an understanding of the social and economic situations in the business world. The membership consists of the senior members of the business education classes.

The commercial curriculum offers each student a thorough knowledge of the business subjects and a job placement program is provided for those who have met the requirements and seek employment. The addition of many new business machines to the department has been very advantageous to every commercial student.

The business education teachers are: Mr. Domenick A. Cupelli, Mrs. Margaret D. Carte, Miss Helen O'Neil, Miss Margaret D. Jaco and Mrs. Mary Louise Martina (now on a leave of absence).

Home Economics

The primary purpose of the Home Economics Department is to help many girls become better future homemakers. To train the girls for future industry and to prepare homemakers is the goal of the faculty that teach Home Economics. The girls have an opportunity to learn the most modern methods of cooking, sewing, good grooming, and general homemaking. They are taught these fundamentals in rooms which have the latest equipment. Their course is more enjoyable by this present day atmosphere.

The twenty-five girls, who serve approximately three hundred and fifty students each day, acquire a practical education in the planning and preparation of balanced diets and menus. They also obtain knowledge of culinary arts. Designed to teach the students to use their hands in constructive ways, the Home Economics courses give them a chance to learn those things that will help them in later life and in the home. Regardless of the future plans of these girls, the knowledge that they have obtained in their Home Economics classes will always be valuable to them.

TRAINING TO MEET RESPONSIBILITIES AS HOMEMAKERS

The grinding of busy sewing machines is a background that we associate with the clothing department. Designed to teach the pupils to use their hands in constructive ways, the sewing course gives our students a chance to learn the things that will help them in later life. To train South Union girls in the art of sewing and general homemaking is the goal of Mrs. Marie Kirk.

To climax a year of sewing we presented to the public "Fashion from a basket for the South Union Modern Miss" on Friday, May 3. Following the fashion show, refreshments were served in the Home Economics Room, and later in the evening a dance was held for the cast in the gymnasium.

As the name implies, the prime purpose of the club is to provide, during the noon period, recreation for the students of our school.

Although the club is only three years old, it already has many fine accomplishments to its credit. Last year, with funds raised by the club, a camera was presented to the school; this year a loud-speaker system was purchased with club funds and presented to the club. Mr. Ryan is the sponsor.

Senior Play

ONE-ACT PLAYS THOROUGHLY PLEASING TO ALL VIEWERS

A group of seniors began buzzing around the high school auditorium the early part of March. The reason for this enthusiasm—green light for presentation of a senior play. Because of the interest shown by the many talented students, the result was three one-act plays which proved very successful.

In addition to the cast, a faithful group assisted on the stage, namely: Cecilia Hixon, Alex Tomshack, Charles Miller, Ronald Flemming, Joe Davis, Louis Haynes, and Harvey Doyle. Between the acts three delightful numbers were presented. Piano solo, Deborah Rider; vocal selection, Tom Frantz, Dale Hall, Bill Neff, John Stewart, and John Wood; and a violin solo by Gwen Hoopes. Mrs. Priscilla A. Hughes directed the plays.

This is my third piece of pie!

Square Dance Club

All in your places with a smile on your faces—
"Let's Square Dance"

There is no required shape, weight, or size for a square dancer. Nobody cares what class you are in, what church you attend, or how you comb your hair. As long as you can keep time with the rhythmic strains of the fiddle and follow the chant of the caller, you have filled the requirements necessary to take part in one of the greatest activities ever to spread across America. The Charleston and the Blackbottom have had their day, the Rock n' Roll and Calypso will soon be music of the past, but square dancing is here to stay.

The South Union Square Dance Club has just completed its eighth year of swinging "that gal in calico." Two of the outstanding social activities on the school calendar this past year were the Petticoat Prom and the Valentine Dance. At the latter, Patty Zitney was selected to reign as the Queen of Hearts and John Haniford, the King of Hearts. Ginny Semsey was club president and Mrs. Priscilla A. Hughes was faculty sponsor.

LEARNING SKILLED TRADES FOR THE FUTURE

Richard Hoch, senior guide, points out some features of a bookcase made by one of our shop students.

Mr. Theodore Zajac, shop instructor, shows some of the tools made by students in the machine shop.

It is the philosophy of the Industrial Arts Department that we cannot give "a horse-and-buggy education in an atomic age." In South Union High it consists of Mechanical Drawing, Wood Shop, Machine Shop, Electric Shop, and an Electronics-Radio-Television Department. These subjects are designed to give our boys an insight into these various areas . . . to help them decide which of these they might like to continue as a career.

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is not the aim of the Industrial Arts Department. A much anticipated event of the year is the Minstrel. Proceeds are used to add new machinery and make other changes in the curriculum.

Mr. John J. Cairns assisted by Mrs. Irene Howard do a wonderful job in directing a show that is full of laughs and quips from the opening olio to the closing chorus. Mr. Theodore Zajac and Mr. Robert Mouser are the shop teachers.

Wayne McDiffett, M.C.; John Haniford, interlocutor; and Mike McDonough, C.C., seem pleased during one of their discussion periods.

Tri-Hi-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y is one of South Union's most outstanding clubs. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character. This goal was reached by every member in their helping others through service projects.

An opportunity is given, by way of a personal invitation, to the Juniors and Seniors to become members of the club. Soon after, activities for the year will begin with the induction of new members.

COMBINED ENTERTAINMENT WITH CHARITABLE SERVICES

Many service projects are completed by the members of the Tri-Hi-Y for which they have received many honors from the Uniontown Y.M.C.A. for their worthwhile accomplishments.

All work and no play was not the complete aim of the Tri-Hi-Y club. Dancing, bowling, swimming, and covered dish suppers were well attended during the year. Christmas cheer was brought to the students by the beautifully decorated Christmas tree that adorned our hall. Club funds were raised by means of candy sales and bake sales. This year has been a pleasant and successful one for the girls.

Under the capable leadership of head coach Park Glass, and his assistants, the South Union football team established a very impressive record of six victories and three defeats.

After losing their opening game to Carmichaels, the Devils proceeded to record three straight victories over Masontown, Georges, and Point Marion by comparatively comfortable margins. A heartbreaking loss to Waynesburg by the score of 21-20, coupled with a loss to a powerful German team, halted the Blue Devil win streak. S. U. finally got back on the winning trail by defeating Dunbar and Bellmar. A very close and thrilling victory over cross-town rival North Union 7-6 closed out a very successful season.

Although Coach Glass loses nine members of this year's team, he has many capable underclassmen who can fill these vacancies. Those boys graduating are: Dennis Dvorchak, John Stewart, Tom Frantz, Bob Sica, Fred Mason, Dale Odom, Fred Podlogar, Bob Sickles, Danny Saltrick, and Manager Bill Bryson.

RUGGED EXAMPLES OF BLUE DEVIL SPIRIT

Freshman Football

This year's freshman team gained some much needed experience on the gridiron. Under the coaching of Okey Ryan, the team spent many hours practicing. Although their record showed only one victory as against three defeats, it should be noted that every opponent with the exception of North Union used both freshmen and sophomores whereas our team used only eighth and ninth graders. The "Baby Devils" defeated Masontown and lost to North Union, Pt. Marion, and Dunbar. Varsity Coach Park Glass is looking forward to using some of these freshmen on next year's varsity team.

SOUTH UNION CAPTURES COACHES TOURNAMENT

Basketball

Although this year's Blue Devil basketball team could not successfully defend the Section XI title won by the 1956 squad, the undergraduates did win the Fayette County Coaches' Tournament championship. Following the regular season, the sophomores and juniors swept through three tournament contests to take the Fayette County title.

In league play the Devils won five of their last seven games to end the season in a third place tie. Handing Redstone its only defeat of the season was undoubtedly their outstanding game. To make the season a success, the Blue Devils defeated arch rival North Union in the final game, giving them a season record of seven victories and seven defeats.

The team is composed mainly of underclassmen, with only four boys graduating. With these experienced underclassmen, Mr. Fagler hopes to build another championship team. The seniors leaving the team this year are: Don Mason, Bob Vassar, John Haniford, and Bob Sica.

BRINGS EXCITEMENT IN THE SPRING

Mr. Ryan discusses the day's ball game with two senior players Henry Mitchell and John Wood.

"In the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of . . . baseball." Coach Okey Ryan has heeded this philosophy to turn out the best pitchers, catchers, fielders, and batters possible. This year's baseballers were no exception. Although the crowd screamed "Kill the umpire!" the poised Blue Devils kept their heads and pulled the close ones out of the fire. They bunted, homered, and slid their way into the lead, and stayed there.

A new Fayette County High School League was formed this year and the Blue Devils were in the thick of the race all the way. Bob Sica, Rich Novak and Denny Dvorchak did most of the pitching. Other members of the mound staff were Dale Odom, John Wood and John Maier. Regular outfielders were Butch Frankhouser, who also played first base; Allen Bierer and Henry Mitchell. Infielders were Bob Sica, first base; Carl Litman, second base; Rich Novak, third base; and Tom Rae, shortstop. Tom Brajdic was the regular catcher with Donald LaClair helping out. Substitutes were Harold Dennis, Richard Briscoe, John Landi, and Lemon Wright.

At this writing the Blue Devils have won five games and lost one. Most of the regulars will return next year, making the future look rather bright.

KEEPS THE CINDERS FLYING

B. Anderson, O. Anderson, and J. Geho are ready for a practice dash.

"Get on your mark! Get set! Go!" These are familiar words to the ears of all tracksters everywhere. The South Union High School track and field team, coached by Ringy Stefancin, completed this year's competition with a commendable record, not in wins, but participation by many and, of course, winning points. The scores of the first three meets were as follows: Brownsville 76½, Redstone 37½, South Union 17. In the second meet at Redstone, the Devil cinder-men scored 37 points to Redstone's 71, Trinity's 37½, and East Huntingdon's 20. In a dual meet at Dunbar, the Blue Devil runners lost by two points, 64½ to 62½.

Point makers have been Landi, Sowinski, Mocnik, Brozak, O. Anderson, Jim Nehls, Vassar, Sica, Dvorchak, Rae, Woods, Saltrick, Brewer, and Novak.

Bill Mocnik, a freshman miler, looks promising for the future. Bob Vassar won first place in the County Meet, jumping 20 feet. He will represent South Union in the WPIAL meet in that event.

All the boys on the track squad feel that a measured cinder track could and would increase interest in our track efforts. Little by little we are accumulating necessary equipment — maybe time will warrant us a cinder track.

Cheerleaders

SOUTH UNION'S BIGGEST NOISE

"Victory, victory is our cry . . ."

Just how many times we have heard this phrase during our years at S. U. could be difficult to guess, for our spirited cheerleaders are always reminding us of this objective. Many times after pep meetings, the cheerleaders could be seen collapsed on the bleachers, practically exhausted, but not without joyous smiles, as they watched the student body return to classes after contracting the cheerleaders' will-to-win. Facing rain, snow, and cold, they still managed to be seen at all our games with their able sponsor, Mrs. Howard. Their snappy blue and white uniforms could be seen leading our band in all the parades except the Halloween Parade, when they came attired in Robin Hood costumes. After a very busy year, the seniors received their award sweaters, held a Ten-Year Banquet at Meloni's, and said their farewell good-byes to their duties as SUHS cheerleaders.
